Carfinal Manning said the Land League, when He always regarded it as a legitimate organshould never have a word of discouragement from him, and he prayed that it might and said he thought that under the guidance of the faithful Bishops and clergy of Ireland the League would be directed into a path. The condition of the la orers, he said, had his earnest sympathy, but the Land bill cannot effectually deal with the question. It was disappointing that the laborers are not more closely identified with it, but the bill is so large, unwieldy and complicated that it would be impossible to introduce so awkward a subject as the Irish laborer. It was better for them that the subject be reserved for the future. A royal commission ought to be appointed to take evidence solely on the condition of laborers. The appointment of such a commission should be sought at the next session of Parliament, but a sanitary commission ought to be provided in the Land bill which could la orers, he said, had his earnest

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT. President Rambaut presented his annual report on the condition of the public schools during his administration. He submitted that at the opening of the schools in October last, he found the Board indebted in the sum of $14,956 46. The schools in January last were found in an embarrassing financial condition, having failed for want of funds to pay the teachers or its bills accrued on the opening of the schools. On the 1st of Feb-ruary we were indebted to teachers and sundry parties an amount exceeding $22,300, and the schools were to be closed, but certain the Board and arranged a loan of $20,000, which enabled the Board to relieve itself from its indebtedness at the time. This loan been paid, yet leaving the Board with an indebtedness accruing since to date of $20, 515 26, and with $4265 16 to credit in bank to pay. If thirty-three per cent. of the amount on taxes due could be collected and paid over it would anticipate no further trouble in future. The school buildings are in good condition. LITTLE ROCK, July 11,-John Letting, German farmer, living about six miles from Corning, Clay county, was called to his door Saturday night by four disguised men, who shot at him several times, inflicting dangerous wounds. The cause is unknown.

Murder in Crittenden County. LITTLE ROCK, July 11.—Intelligence reaches here that a negro was arrested in the lower edge of Crittenden county, on the Mississippi river, and placed in the hands of a guard to remain over night in waiting for the steamer Rene Macready, due next morning. During the night the guard fell asleep, it is supposed, when the negro seized the guard's guard had been his close to the series of the se gun, blew his (the guard's) brains out and made good his e-cape. LITTLE ROCK, July 11.-Miss F. L. Brad shaw, an orphan girl sixteen years of age, living near Wiley's Cave, was induced to leave her home by a young man named leave her home by a young man named Jerome Rumley. Several nights after Rumley returned without the girl. The citizens suspecting crookness held Rumley a prisoner and sent a committee in search of the girl. They found her in an old house near Green-PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS ELECTED.

Visitor Jordan, of the committee on teachers, made report as follows, which was adopted unanimously by the Board:

Iney found her in an old house near Greenbrier, awaiting the return of the young man, who, she admitted, had ruined her but would soon return and marry her. The citizens will compel him to marry her, as her deceased parents were among the house near Greenbrier, awaiting the return of the young man, who, she admitted, had ruined her but would soon return and marry her.
